

DYNAMIC LEADER

NVS Reddy, MD, Hyderabad Metro Rail Ltd is heading the mega Hyderabad Metro Rail project (72 km) with an estimated cost of ₹14,132 crore ($2.11 billion) under public private partnership (PPP) with innovative financial engineering is his bold initiative in mass transit systems and infrastructure development. It is the world's largest Metro rail project being implemented in PPP mode. He has over 33 years of managerial and administrative experience and has held several senior Government positions. During his varied assignments, he contributed to systemic improvements in Indian Railways and won many awards. As Director (Finance) of a power distribution company of Government of Andhra Pradesh, he successfully turned around the loss making company in a short span of one year. As Additional Commissioner of Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, he built a lot of public amenities through innovative ways, without spending from public exchequer. He also built four important flyovers in Hyderabad city. He is known for his financial acumen, engineering innovation, open minded approach and leadership qualities. He is an expert in Rail Transportation, Power sectors, Finance, Urban Transportation, Urban Governance, Project Structuring, Project Management and PPPs. He has been associated with implementation of many important projects including the mega Konkani Rail project on the west coast of India. He has varied interests and lectures on a variety of topics in prestigious engineering and management institutes in India and abroad.